

IN Whips and Wheels Membership Form 2022

The Indiana Whips and Wheels, INC is a club, founded in 1995, for the purpose of promoting the sport of Carriage Driving in Indiana and to educate members and the public about the sport of Carriage Driving and is based out of the HOOSIER HORSE PARK. As a member of the American Driving Society, Indiana Whips and Wheels, INC. (IWWI) participates in driving activities at the national level and provides members with updates and current rules within the horse driving discipline via a monthly newsletter. IWWI meetings are held often, providing educational opportunities for both competitive and recreational driving at all levels of expertise. IWWI hosts a combined driving event, CDE, annually in September, drawing exhibitors from all over the eastern US. IWWI has members in a multi-state area. We encourage carriage driving for all levels from the novice to advanced competitive driving! Check out our website at www.inwwi.com

All memberships are for the calendar year running January 1 – December 31.
